

Y107 England 1547-1603: the later Tudors (Enquiry topic: Mid Tudor Crises 1547-1558)

Year 12 Summer Work. Teacher Miss Rawlinson

Welcome to the Later Tudors Unit! I'm looking forward to teaching you in September.

Task

Please watch/listen to the documentaries/podcasts below to give you a background to the monarchs we will be studying.

As you watch/listen to the podcasts/documentaries, write down what you consider to be the 2 most significant points made in each of the podcasts/documentaries.

Be ready to discuss your 2 points in class. Why are those two points significant?

Why are your chosen points more or less significant than any of the other points chosen by other students?

Year 12 Summer Work
Teacher: Miss Cluer

Welcome to the French Revolution and Rule of Napoleon course! I look forward to working with you over the course of next year in Pate's 6th form. In order to prepare for Year 12, I'd like you to listen to the following podcasts and complete these activities over the summer.

Task 1: Historical immersion – listen to the following podcasts to gain background contextual knowledge.

In Our Time podcasts Radio 4:

The legacy of the French Revolution on French and European culture and politics

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p00547gg>

The French revolution's Reign of Terror

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p003k9cf>

In Our Time podcast Radio 4:

Napoleon: the Man and Myths Radio 4:

Episode 1: Historian Andrew Roberts questions if Napoleon really was a short, uncouth, villainous, Corsican upstart, as portrayed during his lifetime by British caricaturists.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b05xx9pz>

Episode 2: Napoleon is accused of turning France into a military dictatorship, of micro-managing the empire with himself as supreme leader. Historian Andrew Roberts takes a more nuanced view.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b05yrw1s>

Task 2:

Create a timeline of key dates and historical turning points in Revolutionary and Napoleonic France 1774-1815

Task 3:

Design your own political cartoon about French pre-revolutionary society
